VERN SUR SEICHE, FRANCE – Lacroix Electronique reported first-half fiscal 2011 revenues in its contract electronics group rose 27.2% year-over-year to 163.6 million euros.

Overall revenues for the period ended Sept. 30 were up 15% to 303.5 million euros.

“The group show[ed] strong growth, and this trend should be confirmed during the next financial year,” Lacroix said in a statement.

Lacroix operates SMT production plants in France, Tunisia, Germany, Poland and Romania. It also has five design centers.
